A: You are running a couple of trojan programs, most probably the game and motion. But I am not familiar with them or other programs like them, so I would suggest following this guide to get rid of them. Additionally, if you are running Windows XP, you might want to check that your firewall is up-to-date (if it isn't, use the Windows firewall application to scan your system and update it as necessary), and also that you didn't download any malicious files (eg. by clicking on links in e-mails, visiting links in websites or opening attachments). Q: CSS: Floated div doesn't interact with other floated div I have these two overlapping divs: I'm using CSS to put the two divs on top of each other, such that they are pushed in with no space between. div#button1, div#button2 { display: block; width: 100px; height: 30px; border-radius: 10px; background-color: yellow; text-align: center; margin-top: 10px; } However, as you can see, both divs have the text OK: The result I want is for the two divs to be 6d1f23a050
